

Are you interested in culture and project work, and would you like to gain new experience in organizing projects or contribute your own expertise? Then you've come to the right place.

Kultur Aktiv is an association based in Dresden's Neustadt district. Since 2002, we have been developing and carrying out a wide range of projects related to art and culture. Geographically, our focus is on Dresden and Eastern Europe.

We are offering two positions in the Federal Volunteer Service!

For 12 months (30 hours/week, fewer hours possible by arrangement), you'll be part of the Kulturaktivisten:innen team and gain comprehensive insights into cultural work of an association.

What are your responsibilities?

- Focus: Press and public relations with an emphasis on social media (content creation, channel management, and online presence)
- Cultural and project management
- Supporting project leaders and volunteers in organizing and implementing projects
- Collaboration with our photo Gallery „Galerie nEUROPA“
- Participation in team meetings and project discussions

What should you bring to the table?

- A passion for cultural and intercultural exchange
- Openness, creativity, communication skills, and the ability to work well in a team are among your strengths
- Proficiency in standard Office programs (Excel and Word)
- Excellent German and English language Skills

What do we offer?

- Practical, responsible, and professional project work in the intercultural field
- You'll work in a motivated team, gain insights into Dresden's diverse cultural scene, and have the opportunity to contribute your own ideas
- Flexible working hours
- Stipend

Application

Interested in joining us? Then apply and send your application materials (resume, short cover letter) to info@kulturaktiv.org. We look forward to hearing from you!